

Niagara Parks' Chef Sidney Krick Queen Victoria Place

As Chef at the Queen Victoria Place complex, Chef Sidney Krick oversees Edgewaters Tap & Grill, the Riverview International Buffet and Chefs in the Park catering.

Chef Sidney's 20 year career began at the Prince of Wales Hotel, one of the Vintage Inns establishments in Niagara-on-the-Lake. He expanded his culinary expertise at the Old Stone Inn, the Brock Plaza Hotel, Remingtons of Montana, Canadian Niagara Hotels, as well as serving as Executive Chef and Assistant General Manager of the Rainforest Café.

Born and raised in St. Catharines, Ontario, Chef Sidney attended Niagara College and received his Journeyman Cook (Red Seal) certification in 1991. Currently residing in Niagara Falls, Sidney is again enrolled at Niagara College working towards his Wine Maker Certificate. Chef Sidney has also recently completed his Master Taster Certification. Along with achieving several honours and medals in culinary competitions, Chef Sidney has a wide range of expertise including: Fine and Casual Dining, Steakhouse style, Banquets and high volume food. He has also participated in the Wine Tasting Challenge along with 200 of Canada's top Sommeliers.

Chef Sidney brings to Niagara Parks a great passion for Wine that will give a creative and unique flair to his work at Queen Victoria Place. Located in the heart of Niagara Parks, the newly renovated restaurants feature reasonably-priced family fare and breathtaking views of the American and Horseshoe Falls from inside, from the large upper terrace or the ground level patio. It is a popular spot for banquets and parties, accommodating up to 700 persons and providing the ideal venue for enjoying the nightly illumination of the Falls, special events and programming such as concerts and fireworks that take place just outside the doors.
